Role of a Class Parent

- Organise social events; for example, family plays in the park in the holidays, dinners for mums and/or dads.
- Play a key role in communications between the school and the P&F.
- Get to know your fellow mums/parents and act as a liaison between parents and teacher. Introduce yourself to your teacher.
- Keep parents informed of happenings within the school.
- Build relationships between the school and families. Lead by example; volunteering and encouraging other parents to volunteer for events where the school requires parental support such as our annual Open Day, Grandparent's Day, swimming/sports carnivals, school fair, Mother's Day stall, and other whole school activities.
- Encourage parents to let you know if they hear of people who need support; for example, a new baby, family bereavement or other family crisis where support and meals may be needed.
- Organise end-of-year gift for teacher(s) if you want to.
- Ideally one class parent from each grade to attend P&F Meeting.
- MOST IMPORTANTLY the role of a Class Parent is to help build a strong community which will then lead to a strong support network within our school.
- It is acknowledged that everyone has different skills and grades maintain strong connections when there is a group of class parents who can draw on their strengths to support the school and give our children the best opportunities.
